A CELEBRATED CASE.

The Suit for the Possession of the Williamson Farm.

THE UNITED STATES COURT JUDGES

At Parkersburg Yesterday Refused to Consider the Case as Suit Had Been Brought in a State Court, and Because There was Not the Necessary Diversity of Citizenship—A Victory for Captain Jones.

The celebrated legal case for the possession of valuable oil property in and about the oil metropolis, Sistersville, entitled, W. H. Gillespie, et al., vs. J. T. Jones, et al., received another judicial twist at the hands of Judges Jackson and Goff in the United States court at Parkersburg yesterday. The suit, it will be remembered, is for the possession of the Williamson farm, which, with the improvements, is considered worth nearly a cool million of dollars.

The plaintiffs in the case are Eliza Williamson, et al., heirs of David Hickman, deceased, and W. H. Gillespie, assignee, versus Captain Joseph T. Jones, the well known oil operator. Jones bought the property in December, 1891, at a judicial sale. The heirs brought suit in chancery in August, alleging the judicial sale to be invalid and praying it be set aside. Judge T. P. Jacobs granted the request for receivers, who gave $50,000 bond, and also enjoined the pipe line from selling the oil output of the twenty-seven wells. At the time this was done there was very little oil in the pipe line, but last April it amounted to about 175,000 barrels. Captain Jones appealed from the appointment of a receiver, and from the order of the court refusing an injunction. The case went to the supreme court of appeals, and the decision was rendered in April, 1894, in favor of Captain Jones.

Some time ago a petition was made to remove the case to the United States court from the Tyler county circuit court. The attorneys for Captain Jones made a motion that the case was not removable by an act of Congress, and after a full argument the cause was sent by Judges Jackson and Goff back to the Tyler county court where it is now pending.

One of the plaintiffs, D. H. Taylor, son of ex-Judge Taylor, of Chicago, began a new suit against all the others in the United States court at Parkersburg, and both suits have been pending. The attorneys for Captain Jones moved to dismiss the cause in the United States court for want of jurisdiction, and Taylor moved for an injunction to recover the property and oil from Jones. Judges Goff and Jackson yesterday at Parkersburg sustained the motion of the defendant, Jones. This was done on two grounds: First, that the court had no jurisdiction on account of the absence of the necessary diversity of citizenship, and second, that D. H. Taylor had submitted the case to a state court, and that the United States court would not as a matter of judicial comity allow another suit in that court.

The attorneys for the Gillespie side were Hon. John A. Hutchinson, of Parkersburg; Thomas H. Taylor, of Parkersburg, and J. H. McCoy, of Sistersville. Jones' side was represented by Caldwell & Caldwell, of Wheeling, and Blackmar & Young, of Sistersville.

He estimates the cost of the dam at $200,000 and says that with the appropriation of $40,000 annually it will take fifteen years to finish the work. Captain Hoxie also reports that locks No. 8 and 9 are down for improvements in the bill, with mention of a lock and dam at Morgantown. It will require five additional locks and dams to extend the slack water to Fairmont, W. Va.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

AT THE SANGERFEST.

Another Interesting Letter From Mr. Muegge, of the Beechovens. Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

TOLEDO, O., August 2.—Having promised to write to you about our stay in the Festival City I wish to redeem my pledge, although it is nearly midnight. We have had the nicest weather here, and everybody is enjoying himself. The whole Wheeling delegation went to the rehearsal at 9 a. m. at the Sangerfest hall, where every seat on the large stage was soon occupied. The rehearsal was short for every piece was well rendered and the leader was well pleased. After dinner the bulk of the Wheeling singers had a little excursion on the steamer Pastime to Presque Isle, about eight miles from our hotel. We heard so much about the beauty of this place that our expectations were very high, but we were all very much disappointed. Although it could be made a nice resort, it was very much neglected; give us our Wheeling park, it is the best spot of earth for hundreds of miles around.

This evening we had the first main concert; the large hall was packed with people to the doors, and they remained until the last note was sounded. Almost every piece was encored so that another had to be sung. The floral offerings to the soloists and leaders were very profuse and well merited. There was no mistake made by anybody, and every participant has reason to feel proud of the great success achieved so far. I had a chat with Judge Cochran after the concert. He was very well pleased with the Sangerfest.

The delegates of the different societies composing the Central Ohio Sangerbund, had a convention in the afternoon and decided to hold the next Sangerfest at Chillicothe, in 1896, as the city council and chamber of commerce, of that city, passed resolutions asking for the event because they are celebrating their centennial in that year. It will be a big undertaking for so small a city as that, although they have people there who have had some experience.

Joseph Warner was given a hearing last night on three charges preferred by his wife. He was required to give bond for his good behavior for six months in $100, was fined $25 and costs for carrying a concealed pistol, and $10 and costs for assault on his wife.

Work of the Storm.

Information reached the city yesterday of the damage done by the storm of Thursday afternoon about Sherrard. The lightning was very severe, and a bolt struck a large tree, the effect of which was felt by three farm hands who were standing under it. They were made unconscious, but were brought around soon after and are not seriously injured.

BEGINNING EARLY to talk the battle. Don't wait for your cough to run into consumption. There's always danger of it. The germs or seeds of this disease are all around you. All that they want is an inactive liver and the scrofulous condition that follows it, to develop them. You need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, now, to thoroughly purify your blood, build up sound, firm, honest flesh, and make every weak spot strong. It's a certain remedy for the earlier stages of consumption.

DR. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—Two of our best doctors pronounced my case consumption. I spent nearly $300 and was no better. I concluded to try the "Golden Medical Discovery." I bought eight bottles, and I can now say with truth that I feel just as well today as I did at twenty-five, and can do just as good a day's work on the farm, although I had not done any work for several years. I give you all the thanks.

Truly, your friend,

William Duncany
